

Tangerine Coaching Bursary

About Tangerine

Tangerine is a direct bank that delivers simplified everyday banking to Canadians. With nearly 2 million Clients and close to $38 billion in total assets, we are Canada's leading direct bank. Tangerine offers banking that is flexible and accessible, products and services that are innovative, fair fees, and award-winning Client service. From no-fee daily chequing and high-interest savings accounts, Credit Card, GICs, RSPs, TFSAs, mortgages and mutual funds, Tangerine has the everyday banking products Canadians need. With over 1,000 employees in Canada, our presence extends beyond our website and Mobile Banking app to our Café locations, Pop-Up locations, Kiosks and 24/7 Contact Centres. Tangerine was launched as ING DIRECT Canada in 1997. In 2012 it was acquired by Scotiabank, and operates independently as a wholly-owned subsidiary.

Where does the money come from for this bursary?

Tangerine is a proud supporter of basketball across Canada and supports Canada Basketball, Basketball B.C., Basketball Alberta, and the Steve Nash Youth Basketball Program through our BrightWayForward and Community Investments platform. Nationally we are committed to empowering over 500,000 Canadians to live better lives and aim to provide skills, leadership, and coaching to 15,000 kids with a love of basketball. This scholarship is a local initiative created by the Tangerine Vancouver Café in conjunction with our National BrightWayForward program of giving.

About the bursary

One coaching bursary of $500 will be awarded to a Basketball BC member Coach. This bursary is designed to support the coach's reinvestment into education, training, and development to better the sport, league, and his or her personal skills and abilities. This award is intended to support the heart of Basketball in our province and is in recognition of the people who truly keep the sport alive for our youth in British Columbia.
