CODE OF CONDUCT AND ETHICS

Basketball BC
#210 – 7888 200th Street
Langley, BC V2Y 3J4

Purpose

The purpose of this Code is to ensure a safe and positive environment (within Basketball BC's programs, activities, and events) by making Individuals aware that there is an expectation, at all times, of appropriate behaviour consistent with Basketball BC's core values. Basketball BC supports equal opportunity, prohibits discriminatory practices, and is committed to providing an environment in which all individuals are treated with respect.

Definitions

The following terms have these meanings in this Code:

- a. "Individuals" – Individuals employed by, or engaged in activities with, Basketball BC including, but not limited to, athletes, coaches, convenors, referees, officials, volunteers, managers, administrators, committee members, and directors and officers of Basketball BC.
- b. "Workplace" - Any place where business or work-related activities are conducted. Workplaces include but are not limited to, Basketball BC's office, work-related social functions, work assignments outside Basketball BC's offices, work-related travel, and work-related conferences or training sessions

Application of this Code

1. This Code applies to Individuals' conduct during Basketball BC's business, activities, and events including, but not limited to, competitions, practices, tryouts, training camps, travel associated with Basketball BC's activities, Basketball BC's office environment, and any meetings.
2. An Individual who violates this Code may be subject to sanctions pursuant to Basketball BC's Discipline and Complaints Policy (in progress). In addition to facing possible sanction pursuant to Basketball BC's Discipline and Complaints Policy (in progress), an Individual who violates this Code during a competition may be ejected from the competition or the playing area, the official may delay the competition until the Individual complies with the ejection, and the Individual may be subject to any additional discipline associated with the particular competition.
3. An employee of Basketball BC found to have engaged in acts of violence or harassment against any other employee, worker, contractor, member, customer, supplier, client or other third party during business hours, or at any Basketball BC event, will be subject to appropriate disciplinary action subject to the terms of Basketball BC's Personnel Policy as well as the employee's Employment Contract.
4. This Code also applies to Individuals' conduct outside of Basketball BC's business, activities, and events when such conduct adversely affects relationships within Basketball BC (and its work and sport environment) and is detrimental to the image and reputation of Basketball BC. Such applicability will be determined by Basketball BC at its sole discretion.

Responsibilities

5. Individuals have a responsibility to:
  - a. Maintain and enhance the dignity and self-esteem of Basketball BC members and other individuals by:
    - i. Demonstrating respect to individuals regardless of body type, physical characteristics, athletic ability, age, ancestry, colour, race, citizenship, ethnic origin, place of origin, creed, disability, family status, marital status, gender identity, gender expression, sex, and sexual orientation
    - ii. Focusing comments or criticism appropriately and avoiding public criticism of athletes, coaches, officials, organizers, volunteers, employees, or members
    - iii. Consistently demonstrating the spirit of sportsmanship, sport leadership, and ethical conduct
    - iv. Acting, when appropriate, to correct or prevent practices that are unjustly discriminatory
    - v. Consistently treating individuals fairly and reasonably
    - vi. Ensuring adherence to the rules of the sport and the spirit of those rules

- f. Behave with decorum appropriate to both circumstance and position and be fair, equitable, considerate, and honest in all dealings with others
- g. Keep informed about Basketball BC's activities, the provincial sport community, and general trends in the sectors in which they operate
- h. Exercise the degree of care, diligence, and skill required in the performance of their duties pursuant to the laws under which Basketball BC is incorporated
- i. Respect the confidentiality appropriate to issues of a sensitive nature
- j. Ensure that all Individuals are given sufficient opportunity to express opinions, and that all opinions are given due consideration and weight
- k. Respect the decisions of the majority and resign if unable to do so
- l. Commit the time to attend meetings and be diligent in preparation for, and participation in, discussions at such meetings
- m. Have a thorough knowledge and understanding of all Basketball BC governance documents
- n. Conform to the bylaws and policies approved by Basketball BC, in particular this Code of Conduct and Ethics as well as the Conflict of Interest Policy and Confidentiality Policy

Coaches

7. In addition to section 5, coaches have many additional responsibilities. The coach-athlete relationship is a privileged one and plays a critical role in the personal, sport, and athletic development of the athlete. Coaches must understand and respect the inherent power imbalance that exists in this relationship and must be extremely careful not to abuse it, consciously or unconsciously. Coaches will:
  - a. Ensure a safe environment by selecting activities and establishing controls that are suitable for the age, experience, ability, and fitness level of the involved athletes
  - b. Prepare athletes systematically and progressively, using appropriate time frames and monitoring physical and psychological adjustments while refraining from using training methods or techniques that may harm athletes
  - c. Avoid compromising the present and future health of athletes by communicating and cooperating with sport medicine professionals in the diagnosis, treatment, and management of athletes' medical and psychological treatments
  - d. Support the coaching staff of a training camp, provincial team, or national team; should an athlete qualify for participation with one of these programs
  - e. Provide athletes and the parents/guardians of minor athletes with the information necessary to be involved in the decisions that affect the athlete
  - f. Act in the best interest of the athlete's development as a whole person
  - g. Respect other coaches, officials, athletes, and administrators
  - h. Meet the highest standards of credentials, integrity and suitability, including but not limited to such considerations established by Basketball BC's Screening Policy
  - i. Report any ongoing criminal investigation, conviction, or existing bail conditions, including those for violence, child pornography, or possession, use, or sale of any illegal substance
  - j. Under no circumstances provide, promote, or condone the use of drugs (other than properly prescribed medications) or performance-enhancing substances and, in the case of minors, alcohol and/or tobacco
  - k. Respect athletes playing with other teams and, in dealings with them, not encroach upon topics or actions which are deemed to be within the realm of 'coaching', unless after first receiving approval from the coaches who are responsible for the athletes
  - l. Not engage in a sexual relationship with an athlete under 18 years old, or an intimate or sexual relationship with an athlete over the age of 18 if the coach is in a position of power, trust, or authority over the athlete
  - m. Recognize the power inherent in the position of coach and respect and promote the rights of all participants in sport. This is accomplished by establishing and following procedures for confidentiality (right to privacy), informed participation, and fair and reasonable treatment. Coaches have a special responsibility to respect and promote the rights of participants who are in a vulnerable or dependent position and less able to protect their own rights
  - n. Dress professionally, neatly, and inoffensively

- o. Use inoffensive language, taking into account the audience being addressed

Athletes

- 8. In addition to section 5, athletes will have additional responsibilities to:
  - a. Report any medical problems in a timely fashion, when such problems may limit their ability to travel, practice, or compete; or in the case of carded athletes, interfere with the athlete's ability to fulfill requirements under the Athlete Assistance Program
  - b. Participate and appear on-time, well-nourished, and prepared to participate to their best abilities in all competitions, practices, training sessions, tryouts, tournaments, and events
  - c. Properly represent themselves and not attempt to participate in a competition for which they are not eligible by reason of age, classification, or other reason
  - d. Adhere to Basketball BC's rules and requirements regarding clothing and equipment
  - e. Never ridicule a participant for a poor performance or practice
  - f. Act in a sportsmanlike manner and not display appearances of violence, foul language, or gestures to other athletes, officials, coaches, or spectators
  - g. Dress in a manner representative of Basketball BC; focusing on neatness, cleanliness, and discretion
  - h. Act in accordance with Basketball BC's policies and procedures and, when applicable, additional rules as outlined by coaches or managers

Officials

- 9. In addition to section 5, officials will have additional responsibilities to:
  - a. Maintain and update their knowledge of the rules and rules changes
  - b. Work within the boundaries of their position's description while supporting the work of other officials
  - c. Act as an ambassador of Basketball BC by agreeing to enforce and abide by national and provincial rules and regulations
  - d. Take ownership of actions and decisions made while officiating
  - e. Respect the rights, dignity, and worth of all individuals
  - f. Not publicly criticize other officials or any club or association
  - g. Assist with the development of less-experienced referees and minor officials
  - h. Conduct themselves openly, impartially, professionally, lawfully, and in good faith in the best interests of Basketball BC, athletes, coaches, other officials, and parents
  - i. Be fair, equitable, considerate, independent, honest, and impartial in all dealings with others
  - j. Respect the confidentiality required by issues of a sensitive nature, which may include ejections, defaults, forfeits, discipline processes, appeals, and specific information or data about Individuals
  - k. Honour all assignments unless unable to do so by virtue of illness or personal emergency, and in these cases inform the assignor or association at the earliest possible time
  - l. When writing reports, set out the true facts and not attempt to justify any decisions
  - m. Dress in proper attire for officiating

Policy Review and Approval

- 10. This Basketball BC Code of Conduct and Ethics Policy was last reviewed and approved by the Basketball BC Board of Directors on the 18th day of December, 2020.
